

2024

Hello Friends and Neighbors,

Temple University is interested in working with like-minded organizations and individuals who believe in championing happy, healthy communities.

On Sunday, April 28, 2024, we will host the Temple University Bike Tour, the first-ever bike ride of this kind! This brand-new event—a collaboration between the Office of Sustainability, Office of the Provost and Temple University Ambler Campus—will encourage environmental wellness, promote bike safety and boost overall well-being within the Greater Philadelphia region. Cyclists will travel a beautiful 22-mile route along the greenway from the University's Main Campus in Philadelphia, through Fairmount, Wissahickon and Fort Washington State Parks, before arriving at Temple Ambler—a campus that seamlessly integrates the serenity of a botanical garden, the dynamic energy of an outdoor classroom and the boundless possibilities of a living laboratory.

Become a Bike Tour sponsor, and by supporting our cyclists you can also receive prominent advertising placement on the Temple University Bike Tour's webpage, signage at the event, event media alerts and more. We expect many participants and their families to attend from across the Greater Philadelphia region and will be promoting the event (and its sponsors) widely within the Temple community and alumni network. We are happy to work with you to ensure a mutually beneficial arrangement, so please feel free to reach out with partnership ideas.

Your support is essential in shaping the future of Temple Ambler for years to come.

In gratitude,

Diana Blasdel
